KSDK-- Here's something to get you in the holiday spirit. A South St. Louis man has quite the light display.

Tom Skillman started setting up the lights on November 13th. The whole thing is computerized.

There is even music broadcast over low power FM radio at 107.1. Skillman even takes song requests!

If you'd like to see the holiday lights in person it's located at 6429 Lavernell Court, off of Holly Hills Avenue not far from the intersection of Kingshighway and Gravois. For more detailed directions click on the link to the right of the page.
